A luminous, polyphonic chorale saga set between Africa and Europe, of lives intertwined in a tapestry of dreams of elsewhere.

Is coming back home failing? Is staying abroad fading from memory? After trying to resettle in Europe, falling in love in Rome, and being sent to prison, the hero of this story is forced to return to Douala, Cameroon. What now? Now is the time to make a difference. To change his path. And help others. Alongside Imane and Father Antoine, help all those ready to leave for "cemeteries of sand and water." Help those who dream of a better life but risk losing theirs along the way. With his unique style and voice, Marc Alexandre Oho Bambe breaks down the genre barriers, navigating between the novel, memoir, and poetry with surprising ease.
