Barnaby and his friends Constance the Turtle and Claire the Mole return for a third adventure, charming as ever.

One night after it rains, Barnaby and his friends Constance the Turtle and Claire the Mole discover a strange footprint in a puddle. Splash, sploosh! The friends venture farther afield to find out where it came from. They're not afraid of anything... until a big, hunchbacked, pointy-nosed shadow pops up in the window of a little cabin!

A wee investigation that is about not only conquering your fears but standing up for those weaker than yourself.
