70 recipes, 5 talented chefs from all around the world, and an activist caterer and restaurateur.

Travel around the world in these 70 recipes from Syria to Chechnya to Ethiopia, Nepal, and Iran – the five main countries this book focuses on. Sharing and caring have always been values central to the organization Les Cuisstots Migrateurs, and this book upholds that mission through the exchanges it depicts: culinary, cultural, and also human. A book about unity, movement, and putting an end to prejudice against refugees.
