A world of outlandish characters for budding detectives to scrutinize closely.

What a commotion! On a plane, in the middle of a highway, at the skate park, aboard an ocean liner or a train... motley crowds from all times and places, all over the world! In the hustle and bustle, will you be able to pick out the gang of jokers who planted a laughing-gas bomb in the train station, or Billy Rubin, the famous rapper going incognito at the gas station? To solve these 16 unusual puzzles, read the stories and look for their characters in the pictures! But be careful! Some are easy to find, and others? Not so much. A book to help budding detectives hone their eagle eye!
