Hugo Clément is out to raise awareness of our planet's critical state, urging us to act before it's too late.

Activist and journalist Hugo Clément is known for his hard-hitting environmental reporting. His War Diary of the environmental struggle is an unflinching account from the frontlines of those fighting to save our planet. He's gone where the big battles are, from rural Indonesian villages drowning in plastic waste to Arctic glaciers driven ever farther back to overfishing of endangered species off the coast of Mexico. Be it with criminal organizations or even large corporations, Clément is always ready for a fight.
