Learn to read the city.

It takes a lot of organizing beforehand to pull off a citygramming trip, whether it's an overnighter, a long weekend, or an extended voyage of discovery. In this work featuring photos from his extensive citygramming experience, Éric Forey steers readers through such issues as: scouting a location, picking places to shoot, going off the beaten path, making sure you've got the right maps, etc. He also gives tips on scheduling your days and shooting on location in order to best capture the spirit of the city, its pace and culture, its monuments and hidden treasures.
