A thriller about an urban legend, in the vein of Stephen King.

John is a ranger in Passaic County – nothing unusual about that. Except that Clinton Road, 10 miles of asphalt that he patrols daily, turns out to be the most haunted road in the United States, plagued by disturbing disappearances and paranormal phenomena. As it just so happens, it's also the road where his only son, Benjamin, was last seen before he disappeared. But John, who is unable to grieve for his son, takes refuge in an altered reality where fantasies creep their way in...
