An exceptional story: for the first time ever, a police station opened its doors to a novelist, who spent a year with the squad.

For a year, the novelist Pauline Guéna was an intern in a police station near Paris in the crime, drugs, and anti-organized crime squads. Day and night, from the grimy offices to the crime scenes, from arrests to interrogations, from the coroner to the tearful mother, she saw and recorded everything. The result is an exceptional literary tale, for the creative genius of writers easily rivals that of criminals.
