Three sisters, one summer house, buried secrets, and summers that change your life.

Mathilde, Violette, and Louise are sisters. Since childhood, their happiest hours have been spent at La Garrigue, a house their parents bought in Saint-Rémy-de-Provence. They have nothing in common, and yet are inseparable: dazzling and domineering Mathilde, Violette ever in her shadow, and Louise, born years after the other two. This summer, the sisters are meeting up at the family house for the first time since last year's tragedy. Between aggravations and revelations, this reunion will leave their lives forever changed. For the walls of La Garrigue, guardians of three generations of secrets, may no longer protect them...
