Full of love and affection, this is the perfect book to welcome to the world the child who is about to be born.

This is a moving depiction of the baby's life inside its mother's womb, an invitation to discover the outside world and the joy of feeling and dreaming...

This book, with illustrations and poetry by the talented Judith Gueyfier, will appeal to all audiences. The text provides words to offer either to a child who is about to be born, or to a new-born baby, or to the slightly older child who wants to hear about their life before...
