An enchanting story about the relationship between a little boy and his grandpa, who he sees as a comforting giant that he looks up to and always has fun with...

When you're a very little person, your grandpa seems like a very big one! With his huge wrinkled hands and gigantic ears like seashells... perhaps he's even a giant! Grandpa and grandson have a very close relationship and lots of fun times together. Now, the little boy's grandpa has fallen asleep forever... But he'll never forget the happy memories of the times they had together.
