This is the story of Archibald of Holyclaws, the most distinguished of cats.

Archibald of Holyclaws is not your average cat: he comes from a noble bloodline and deserves to be treated with royal care. He gets adopted by Lila and discovers the joys of domestic life. Lila falls in love with her neighbor, who then moves in with them and, soon enough, the two women are expecting a child. As much as Archibald tries to uphold his family traditions, he can never resist salmon patties, or a good hug.
