A blended family is like a puzzle: made up of lots of pieces that fit together... except when they don't!

Camille and Julien have just met and are very much in love. They each have children, exes, families, friends, habits, and life experiences. They're each trying to find their place in a maelstrom of feelings and emotions. Pascale Bougeault's chronicles of this blended family, a series of short slices of daily life, offer up a range of funny, annoying, sweet, and sometimes explosive situations. A graphic novel in black and white – to enjoy as a family, of course!
