When a princess disappears, a dragon and a fairy team up to save her. But did she really need saving at all?

Doug the dragon is flying along, daydreaming, when he crashes headfirst into Princess Lucille's grumpy fairy godmother. No time to argue, though--a princess needs saving! She was kidnapped by a knight, the fairy godmother claims. The next thing poor Doug knows, he's being dragged off on an adventure. The thing is, Doug can't stand knights! And the would-be rescuers might have misread the whole situation...
