The taste of childhood...

A delectable picture book, bubbly and full of surprises for introducing children to a world of tastes and sensory delights: sweet, salty, bitter, sour, but also spicy, icky, bland... And even metaphorical tastes, too: a taste for sharing, the taste of childhood.

This beautiful, large-format work is a tribute to culinary diversity, the pleasures of eating well, and the extraordinary powers of taste.

- Preface by Chef Olivier Røellinger.
 - A page with lift-up flaps shows how taste is connected to our other senses and emotions.
 - Over 100 foods represented and named in French and English.
 - A playful bookmark that looks good enough to eat.
 - A festive pop-up on the final page.
