A story full of comical misunderstandings between a clever little spider and a big dumb elephant.

Lady Spider's spun a magnificent web between two trees on the savannah. Mr. Elephant, out for stroll, has just walked right into it! What a catch for Lady Spider, who's got a big appetite! And a chance to have some fun with that big lunkhead of an elephant, who has no idea what's going on! A game of words and pictures between the tiny spider and the very large elephant, equal parts mischief and innocence, in a colorful yet spare setting, the better to appreciate the characters' postures and expressions.
