A colorful, action-packed series starring an eco-friendly heroine at her stove. A funny but serious attack on the food industry and its excesses.

Eleven-year-old Yasmina and her dad lead a modest life in a small city apartment. Luckily, food-loving Yasmina can whip up just about anything in the kitchen, with an assist from edible herbs and her friends from the community garden. That is, until the day the garden disappears, bulldozed and replaced by a field of potatoes that are both experimental... and completely addictive! The only solution is for Yasmina to track down and eradicate the source of the problem. A fun, colorful tale for all ages.
