Discover the fragility of a thistle, the miracle of a seashell, the tranquillity of a creek in summer dusk.

Blood is the very opposite of the horror its title evokes. This collection of 43 photos takes in the landscape with a predilection for lingering on those simplest, most fundamental things that Corsica's well-preserved nature still has to offer even as the rest of the Mediterranean sinks ever deeper into devastation and chaos. Didier Ben Loulou tries to show what beauty survives on its coast. A melancholy reflection on the notion of paradise lost, a time when humans lived in harmony with the elements.
