When destinies intertwine...

Ever since a tragedy she can't recall, Rosanie has been unable to speak. For twenty years, she's been living in her small, cramped world, protected by the man who saved her, now her husband. Félice used to be an athletic, determined young woman till she lost the use of her arms and legs after a climbing accident. Estelle has always felt like an orphan, despite her father's deep devotion. Her mother's absence, and the secret behind it, exert too strong a pull. Rosanie, Félice, Estelle: three women each lonely in their own way. Three women an old story will unite, finally unveiling the truth.
