Life as an animal isn't always fair. But when you think about it, is being a beloved pet really so great?

When you're kind of smelly and not much to look at, it's hard to find someone to love you. So one day all the wild boars, hyenas, and other unloved outcasts of the animal world decide they've had enough: This ends now! We, too, have a right to be cared for, cuddled, and respected! They are willing to provide proof of their mistreatment at the hands of humans and ask other animals, the lovable ones, for advice. And so the great summit of the Unlovables begins...
