A pulse-pounding adventure novel deftly blending fiction and reality.

After the death of his wife Carole Lombard, Gable joins the US Air Force and is sent on missions to bomb Germany. When Hitler learns that his favorite actor is against him, he orders Gable's capture. Martin Bormann, Hitler's personal secretary, is tasked with finding the officer best qualified for this unusual mission. After studying countless profiles, Bormann is intrigued by a young sharpshooter who has already successfully completed several dangerous missions: Captain Florian Weiter.
