A funny, interactive introduction to art for early readers. Learn all about art--it's literally at your fingertips!

This pop-up book introduces children to the most famous and renowned paintings in French museums. With their fingers, readers must turn or push the strip that changes the painting and makes it come alive. Even babies will discover art while having fun. The book requires participation as readers make the images their own, altering them as they see fit. Tra-La-Art provides sensory stimulation to promote artistic development and motor skills. "Animals" includes such paintings as The Dream by Henri Rousseau on the cover, Monkey in a Persimmon Tree by Ohara Koson, The White Cat by Franz Marc, Head of a Calf by Rosa Bonheur, and The Little Owl by Albrecht Dürer.
