Meet naturalist and wildlife photographer Vincent Munier.

Vincent Munier, naturalist and wildlife photographer, has a deep respect and passion for nature, and has photographed wildlife all over the world. His most notable projects include immortalizing Arctic wolves on Canada's Ellesmere Island, as well as swans and cranes on the Japanese island of Hokkaido. Here, he reveals secrets to the art of lying in wait, using blinds, and camouflage in the wild. His encounters with a brown bear, a couple of lynxes, and Arctic wolves will deepen your understanding of wild animals. Take a deep dive into the life of this extraordinary adventurer as you explore the world's great wildernesses and untamed spaces together!
