When two wild creatures meet and learn to tame each other, a friendship is born that will ease their loneliness.

On the doorstep, something was clinging to his slipper. "Get away, you filthy animal!" But little did he know just how stubborn the kitten would prove, returning every evening. Until the man grew accustomed to its presence and waited for it before having dinner, amused by the fearful yet playful creature. Weeks go by, and the kitten grows up into a cat. One night he fails to show, and the man grows worried. Where could his determined little friend have gone? When, after three days, the cat comes back at last, the man is reassured--he'd missed his friend so much!
