Usually, Paul never runs into anyone in the woods.

Paul leaves the noise of the city behind for the silence of the forest. Suddenly, his heart skips a beat: a GIANT bear is standing right in front of him!

Intrigued, the bear looks over the little thing before him. It's got no fur! Frightened, Paul turns around and starts running home.

"Hey, a new game!" the bear thinks. A strange and beautiful friendship is about to begin...

A simple, powerful, and touching tale of friendship: how does it start? How do we win each other over? Do our differences matter? This book provides plenty of food for thought and long discussions on the meaning of the word friend.
