Ten mischievous animals hiding in the foliage, pretending to be something other than they are.

What's that slithering through the trees? A snake? No, a jaguar's tail! What's that atop the palm tree? A toucan's beak? No, a rhinoceros' horn! Appearances can be deceiving! Ten mischievous animals are hiding behind leaves and branches, all pretending to be something they're not. With its a poetic writing and fun peekaboo flaps, this provides hours of fun playing with and learning about animals.
