When Satan goes green, the road to hell is paved with good intentions!

Everybody's going green today, even the devil! Electric scooters: GRR! Heated terraces: GRR! SUVs, plastic waste, over-consumption: GRR, GRR, GRR!

The things that turn the Devil red with rage are too many to count. Thanks to all his age-old experience as a righter of wrongs, Satan (or Catan, as the green activists call him) is fully determined to turn humans into an environmentally responsible species... whether they want it or not!
