"A powerful graphic novel recounting resistance on the part of women trapped in roles that society assigns them at the expense of their true aspirations."

It is the middle of the 16th century. Amélie, a young Catholic woman, is married to Hans, a trader from Dutch high society. This life of humility doesn't suit her rebellious and whimsical nature, but everything changes when Hans brings home a young slave from a distant country. The two women slowly develop a symbiotic relationship that will free them both...
