Raised by her father, Lila lives locked up in her house on a snowbound island. Ever since she was very young, her father has been trying to protect her from the Curse and the Demon. One day, when he is away for longer than usual, Lila thinks that he has been captured by the Demon and decides to go and find him. Setting off on her first journey, she discovers a forest asleep under the snow inhabited by the mysterious Jizos and a white wolf. Who is hiding at the heart of the forest?

A poetic adventure inspired by the Japanese folktale character Yuki-Onna ("Snow" in this story).
