"A very sweet, very beautiful picture book that invites all children to read. Because if reading makes you travel and dream, it can also get you out of a bad situation!"

Sweet Tooth has found something in the grass: a book! The little mouse would really like to know what it says inside... but only the owl can read. So every night, come thunder, snow, or wind, Sweet Tooth goes to see the owl for her lessons. But tonight, the fox has invited himself along for the walk. Will he eat her? The whole forest holds its breath and runs to help the little mouse. But when they arrive, the animals discover Sweet Tooth reading and the fox all ears, captivated by the story. Here's how to learn how to read to save the life of Sweet Tooth, the little wood mouse.
