"A subtle, funny, brilliantly illustrated critique of consumer society. Miss Too-Much is so spoiled she almost drowns in birthday gifts. But happily, her dog saves her, and their relationship is far finer than all the material things around her."

Miss Too-Much is such a lucky girl!
She has a pony, countless stuffed animals, endless shopping sprees, and vacations in St. Tropez--nothing is too much for her! But "enough is enough," as they say, and a big dog will come to her rescue. Who's a good boy?
