An interactive book that stimulates children's imaginations and introduces them to the world of soccer.

An interactive book that explains and enthuses about the world's most popular sport in the world, on levels both professional (great historical moments, legendary encounters, kings of the field, enthusiastic fans) and more humble (local clubs where future champions train, jerseys, techniques and tactics, matches). Who won the first World Cup? What is a sombrero kick? Is a goalie allowed to score? How old was Mbappé when he won the World Cup? All these answers and many more can be found by lifting the flaps!
