Sebastian abruptly rouses himself from a very sedentary lifestyle, determined to to run the New York Marathon.

Sometimes, Sebastian finds himself trapped at dinner with his wife's friends, all running enthusiasts. Such conversations are alienating for someone who hasn't put on a pair of sneakers since he was a teenager. But one day, these friends bring up the possibility of running the world's most famous marathon: the New York Marathon. In a sudden, life-changing moment, Sebastian declares that this year, he too will be there! Still, with registration opening soon, Sebastian's not about to lose heart, even when his body leaves him groaning and gasping after barely 10 minutes of pounding the asphalt. A story about perseverance and transcending your own limits against the backdrop of a tour of New York!
