What is cinema? What is its effect on us? Why do we love it so much? To these questions and more, Blutch seeks answers.

In his modest yet profound and considered way, drawing on his prodigious cultural knowledge and his gift for the graphic form, Blutch references Burt Lancaster, Jean Gabin, Michel Piccoli, Luchino Visconti, Claudia Cardinale, Tarzan, Psycho, and many more. A master of the comics medium presents an essayistic reverie on the narrative art of image-making.
