A farcical, fantastical picture book about letting loose!

Hector is a wriggly little boy, so his parents decide to enroll him in dance class, in hopes he'll get some of that energy out. To their surprise, it's love at first sight! Soon Hector can't think of anything else but dancing all the time, plastering his walls with posters of ballet poses. Enough is enough! his father exclaims, but our little fan is having none of it. He takes a running start and in a sublime leap of faith, starts pirouetting on the ceiling, 12 feet above the floor. There's no way to bring him back down again! To get his son, Dad's going to have to start dancing. Ready? 1, 2, 3...
