A contemporary take Patrick Süskind's Perfume.

At age 18, Jade leaves Brittany and her grandmother behind to move to Paris and pursue her passion: perfumery. She lands a job at a cosmetics and perfume company, discovering Parisian life in all its splendor and soon meeting Victor, a.k.a. Domino, who is congenitally colorblind. It's love at first sight, but their relationship turns toxic, giving Jade a hard time.

Her life takes a turn for the better when she is spotted by famous perfumer Zacharie Mignard, who hires her as an apprentice. Jade decides to create the ultimate perfume, which will bring together the scents of everyone she's ever known. But in order to do so, she must break the most sacred of taboos...
