A brave young girl caught up in a literally explosive romance!

Pierre, a fisherman and dreamer, starts worrying when he sees a mermaid falling from the sky – not just once, but twice, each time with a loud BANG! The fisherman feels worried...

In the village, Pierre finds out that a wicked circus owner is using her as a human cannonball. Horrified by how the young woman is being treated, he resolves to rescue her heroically from misfortune. The next time he hears the explosion he heads out to sea, but his boat hits a rock, and he falls into the water!

The mermaid dives in to save his life! Then they set out to sea together. Using one of her hairs as a fishing line and Pierre's earring as a hook, they will live a long, happy life on love and fish.
