An anthology of joyful, optimistic short stories celebrating LGBTQ+ Pride.

Six teens take part in their city's Pride March. They've never met, but share hopes for a world where all are free to love and be themselves. Their names are Côme, Noa, Jean-Simon, Marie, Victoire, and Sam. They are trans, nonbinary, aromantic, asexual, bisexual, or undisclosed. In their personal histories of love and the quest to be recognized, they try to find a place for themselves in a society that too often marginalizes them. But this one day, this day of pride, is the perfect chance to be themselves, meet new people, and display diversity in all its potent beauty.
