Be the grandparent you always meant to be with these 10 tips explained in detail, from Official Grandparents media!

Being a parent is already magical! So when one day you find out you're going to become a grandparent, it's such a great moment! Right away, you start wondering what you're going to call yourself, what your role will be, how to handle this new status... Above all, you're flooded by an extraordinary feeling that makes you go all mushy inside. But you'll only get mushier with time, because every day spent with your grandchild will strengthen your relationship and provide them with an immense sense of security.
