What if it were time, at long last, to meet the love of your life?

Constance, a brilliant lawyer, has just gotten her job she was eyeing at her top-tier firm. But with her 40s looming, she feels fragile and unsure of herself. Very much in love with Lucas, she's waiting for him to leave his wife, as promised. The ink is barely dry on her contract when she finds out she must undergo something of an unusual trail period. With her friends in her corner, she prepares to step out of her comfort zone, an experiment that will turn her notions of herself, and of love, upside down! Maud Ankaoua draws readers into a captivating and moving world that will leave them wiser and larger of heart.
