Monsieur Jean is thirty with a crazy concierge, a kid, complicated female friends, and male friends who don't have boundaries...

His guy friends who turn up at all hours, crash on his couch, and get him in trouble. His couple friends face existential crises brought on by the arrival of their first child. The women he knows are looking for commitment, and his concierge is flat-out crazy. Thirtysomething Parisian writer Monsieur Jean tries as best he can to keep his head above the water, the hero of these witty misadventures of urban living in our day and age.
