Health, diet, neuroscience, the environment: set the record straight with help from science!

"You learn better while sleeping."

"A glass of wine a day is good for your health!"

"A vegan diet is best for the planet."

"Soon, we all be living on Mars!"

Still can't tell if these claims you hear friends making at parties are true or false? Well, wonder no longer! The minds at Curieux.live have assembled a fun book of comics, articles, and graphics to debunk 100 commonly encountered myths about a variety of topics from food to the environment to sexuality! With this book, you can be well-prepared the next time someone claims "Boys are better at math, it's a scientific fact!"
