A modern, enlightening, feminist take on the major myths that have shaped our culture, and the stories from our childhood!

Feminist activist Blanche Sabbah holds degrees in art history and sociology. In Mythes et meufs (Myths and Babes), she dissects mythology, folktales, biblical texts, and cartoons to examine the roles women play and the way these stories have evolved through the centuries to reinforce messages of patriarchal power. Her political gaze deconstructs the tales we know by heart whose hidden meanings often remain unacknowledged.
