A new generation tries to break the ultimate taboo. A voice for all those who dare not speak. A book of liberation.

Feminism ground underfoot by contradictory demands. Feminists Rahma, Myriam, Zoulikha, Nour, Zahra, and more choose their lovers and their sexuality. Anti-racist, they fear stigmatizing their communities. Independent, they cannot give up their gains. Stoic, they suffer everyday racism from their in-laws: "But you're one of the good ones!" Fighters, they seek peace.
