A joyful picture book celebrating the imagination's delectable pleasures, to be savored like a cake, alone or with company.

One day, a mouse really wants some cookies... so she decides to throw a birthday party! She cooks, bakes, and wraps up her cookies, adds a birthday card, and then it's off to bed!

What do you she think she finds upon waking the next day? Guess? A wonderful birthday present: cookies! All that's left now is to invite some friends over to celebrate. With little improvisation and friends ready to play along, it's easy to make the everyday magical!
