On a street where monsters live, a grandfather teaches his granddaughter to look past appearances.

A new way of tackling issues of difference and tolerance. This book unfolds into a street whose residents include a cerberus, a cyclops, a minotaur, and a yeti. We meet them by opening the doors to their houses. An uncertain little girl must walk by all these houses to reach her grandfather, who teaches her that in each monster hides a sensitive soul. The story ends with a great big party!
