Behind the scenes of everlasting childhood...

Magic and patter have long enchanted fairground visitors, and this book tells the epic story of fairs from their golden age at the end of the 19th century to the present day. Born into a family of fairground entertainers and dubbed “The King of the Fairgrounds”, Marcel Campion shares his generous, authentic, and passionate sense of revelry. Blending stories, memories, experiences, colorful portraits, and personal views, this illustrated book is a hymn to celebration, generosity, and shared happiness.
