This tender story set in a magical Venetian lagoon shows how art and dreams are one and the same.

Zorzi dreams of becoming one of Murano's famed glassblowers. But an accident maims him and ends his apprenticeship. One night, he meets a boy named Giacomo and blows him not a bauble of glass but instead, a delicate dream. The master glassblowers are not pleased when they learn of Zorzi's unique talent, and try to stop him from practicing any further. Will he foil their plans and fulfill his own dreams?
