This gentle, magical tale addresses the very real problems of bullying at school and the angst victims suffer.

At sunset he roams the streets, suitcase in hand. Sometimes he presses an ear to a house window. That's when he hears things, things no one else can hear. Nor does anyone else notice what he does, but then again, that's his job, his trade. Mr. Morpheo is the Dreamcatcher. Enter the world of this fantastical figure and discover... the world of dreams!

+ 2-page nonfiction appendix about bullying at school, to help start a conversation with children.
