

Date : 29/03/2023

Pages : 259

Format cm : 14 x 21

Prix : 21.9

EAN : 9782226478108

Tsunami

Author: Marc Dugain

Publisher : Albin Michel

Category : Literature and Fiction

Genres : Novels/Fiction

Keywords : President - Power - Africa

Solène Chabanais, Foreign Rights Manager

"A fascinating political fable and backstage glimpse into the halls of power, shaken more than ever in the 2020s by social conflict and environmental issues."

Based on a true story, this novel ushers readers into a rarefied world at once hushed yet brutal: the Elysée Palace, official residence of the President of the French Republic. In these pages we are privy to the private life of President governing, or attempting to govern, a country teetering on the brink of a volcano. We dive deep into the complex emotional life of a head of state who divides his favors among three women at once, piling risk upon risk! One question looms: can the President save his own skin? This transgressive novel will have readers thrilling to the dangers threatening the presidency, all the more fearful when they stir unseen, brewing... like a tsunami.
